Support Survivors. Prevent Assault.

Nichole Schmidt and her husband, James "Jim" Schmidt, are the mother and stepfather of Gabby Petito, who lost her life to relationship violence in 2021. In the wake of their unimaginable loss, Nichole and Jim committed themselves to transforming grief into purpose by advocating for survivors and raising awareness about relationship violence and missing persons. Nichole serves as President and Jim as Secretary of the Gabby Petito Foundation, where they support organizations providing direct assistance to survivors and families in crisis. Through their advocacy and public speaking, they continue to honor Gabby's legacy by promoting education, prevention, and community action to help prevent future tragedies.
