LAND Trust Council

- Verify Training – Each council member has verified that they have completed the Statewide Charter Council Training as required by the USBE.
- Review 2025/26 School LAND Trust Plan & Set Goals
    - Last Year's Plan: Lisa reviewed last year's plan. The official school report card, which includes this plan, will be published tomorrow for public viewing.
    - Goal Overview: Lisa explained that she is continuously working on three main goals: reporting on the previous year's progress, achieving the current goals, and drafting goals for the upcoming year.
    - Data & Individual Goals: Lisa presented the Acadience Reading and Math scores, which serve as the foundation for these goals. Teachers are also currently developing their own individual goals.
    - New Senate Bill & Focus: In response to a new Senate Bill (listed below), Lisa proposed focusing specifically on one reading goal. She will present this proposed goal at the next council meeting.

      Utah: Senate Bill 241 (Early Literacy)
        - Status: Passed and took effect on July 1, 2026 (sponsored by Sen. Ann Millner).
        - Core Goal: Targets 80% of third-grade students reading on grade level by 2030.
        - Key Requirements: Mandates K-3 benchmark and diagnostic testing, individualized reading plans for struggling students, and bans the "three-cueing" teaching model. It includes third-grade retention starting in Spring 2030, subject to good-cause exemptions and parent appeals.

Tom made a motion to close the School LAND Trust Council meeting at 6:53pm. Micah seconded the motion. All voted in favor, meeting adjourned.
