

Parent Service Organization

What Does PSO Money Do?

JAA Roseville's Parent Service Organization funds are carefully directed to assist John Adams Academy scholars to provide supplemental supplies, programs and activities for the benefit and use of scholars and staff. Just in the past few years we have been able to sponsor many needs & events such as, but not limited to:

Events & Programs

- High School Formal subsidy
- Daddy Daughter Dance
- Mother/Son activity
- Veteran's day assembly & MPR décor
- Drama Productions
- Teacher Development
- New parent orientation events & food
- Heritage Fair event
- Holiday art show venue, décor & props
- Patriot Retreat – Roller King
- Hospitality luncheons/staff birthdays/other appreciation events
- San Francisco Art Trip
- Field trip subsidy
- Constitution day
- Assemblies
- Education Night speakers

Supplies & Resources

- Library shelves & furniture (7th-12th grades)
- Library shelves & BOOKS (Elementary)
- Graphing calculators
- Tetherball systems

- High School online classroom library membership
- Camcorder (technology dept)
- Wireless microphone headsets system
- Recording equipment
- Expanded handheld radio system
- Economics Books
- Advanced Math manipulative supplies
- NASCO art supplies
- CPM Educational materials
- Black curtains for MPR alcoves
- Themed seasonal library décor
- Library Books – Biography Sets
- PE equipment
- Playground equipment
- Dance-a-thon prizes and event
- Dance-a-thon teacher grants
- PSO newsletter printing cost
- Boxtop contest incentives
- Classroom rugs
- Megaphone
- Classroom book sets
- Campus Decorations
- Lost & Found hangers & supplies
- Language resource materials